TESTIMONIALS

We went in thinking we would get some good bread, but it went way beyond this. This is one of our best finds in three months of travel in Asia! They had a large variety of breads, and everything we tried was excellent! The staff was excellent, and greeted us with smiles every time, and we ate most of our lunches there while we were in Sanur.

Marlo Wandels, Canada via Tripadvisor

Been a couple of times since we arrived in Sanur and have not been disappointed yet, the cooked breakfast is lovely as are the fresh juices and coffee. The 3 virgins breads is so filling nearly enough for 2. If your nearby it's well worth a visit. The staff are great as well, brought some bread and jams for our villa and for gifts to take home.

Phillip G, UK via Tripadvisor

I visit Bread Basket regularly when I am in Sanur. The food is consistent and delicious so combined with the friendly service they keep me coming back. I usually go for a custom sandwich at lunch, which are the best sandwiches I have found in the area. The fries are also very good and worth adding on as a side. I've enjoyed the breakfast sandwich here as well and I've never been disappointed.

DID YOU KNOW?

Sourdough is a long-lost technique, first used by the artisan bakers in the northern half of Europe. Sourdough bread also takes longer to digest because the rye flour added to sourdough can help regulate blood sugar levels which helps ward off diabetes.
